

NJ's do not call status is not too restrictive. I refuse to have any telemarketer call me, without my permission. I enjoy my peace and quiet, especially during the dinner hour. Leave things status quo.